HARRY DALTON — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT-GENERAL MANAGER

In five short seasons under Harry Dalton's leadership, the Milwaukee Brewers have been one of the most successful teams in baseball. They not only have compiled the third best record in the majors in that brief time span, but they highlighted their performance by winning the American League Championship and appearing in their first World Series in 1982.

Only the Baltimore Orioles (445-304, .594) and the New York Yankees (430-324, .5703) have better records than Milwaukee (431-325, .5701) since Brewer President Allan H. (Bud) Selig named Harry Dalton Executive Vice President-General Manager on November 20, 1977. All that and more from a team that never finished better than ten games under .500 before Dalton came on the scene.

For the second time in his career, Dalton earned the prestigious Sporting News Major League Executive of the Year Award — he initially earned the distinction with Baltimore in 1970 — and the Brewers' success in 1982 easily explains the well-deserved honor.

Milwaukee captured the Eastern Division Title with a 95-67 record, the club's .586 winning percentage being the best in all of baseball. The Brewers then won the American League Championship and wrote their name in the history books besides, when they became the first team to win an LCS by sweeping three straight games AFTER losing the first two. Although the Brewers fell one game short of winning the World Series, they gave the city of Milwaukee and the state of Wisconsin its first Fall Classic in 24 years.

Dalton has built the Brewers into one of baseball's most exciting offensive teams, adding Ted Simmons, Ben Oglivie and Gorman Thomas to the Brewer lineup. But even more important, he has improved the pitching staff with the addition of Jim Slaton, Rollie Fingers, Pete Vuckovich, Don Sutton and Doc Medich, the latter two late season acquisitions who were especially influential in the 1982 pennant drive.

Dalton has an excellent track record as a master tradesman. In seventeen years as a General Manager at Baltimore, California, and Milwaukee, his trades and free agent signings have acquired a brilliant array of star players including Frank Robinson, Mike Cuellar, Pat Dobson, Nolan Ryan, Bobby Bonds and Bill Singer among others, as well as the current Brewer stars mentioned above. These players, after being obtained by Dalton, have compiled an amazing record of individual performances which includes three Cy Young Awards, three MVP awards, eight Twenty-Victory seasons, five Home Run Championships and the all time major league No-Hit Record of five, accomplished by Nolan Ryan.

He has also been very successful at selecting managers during his career, giving Earl Weaver, George Bamberger and Harvey Kuenn an opportunity to manage in the majors without previous big league managerial experience. Milwaukee was tied for fifth place (23-24), seven games out of first place when Dalton asked Kuenn to take over on June 2. The Brewers played at a .626 pace (72-43) the rest of the year under Kuenn and became nationally known as "Harvey's Wallbangers", while becoming the most feared offensive team in baseball.

While the Brewers reflect Dalton's philosophy of a team — no one player is more important than the other 24 — his front office is no different and he gives his staff much of the credit for the organization's success.

"The Dalton Gang" includes Walter Shannon, Assistant General Manager, Dee Fondy and Sal Bando, Special Assistants to the General Manager, Ray Poitevint, Director of Player Procurement, Walter Youse, East Coast Scouting Supervisor, and Bruce Manno, Coordinator of Minor League Operations, among others.

Dalton, having spent six seasons as Executive Vice President & General Manager with the Angels before joining Milwaukee, began his career with Baltimore in 1953. He progressed quickly, moving from Assistant Farm Director to Vice President of Player Personnel in his 18 years with the O's. Baltimore won four pennants (1966, '69, '70 & '71) and two world championships (1966 & '70) with Dalton at the helm, as the Orioles compiled a .603 winning percentage under his leadership.

A former sportswriter for the Springfield (MA) Daily News while a high school and college student, Dalton graduated from Amherst College in 1950. He earned the Bronze Star for his work as a combat press officer while serving in Japan and Korea as a First Lieutenant in the Air Force during his 37 month tour of duty.

Dalton, his wife, Patricia, and their daughters, Kim, 20, Cindy, 17, and Debbie, 15, reside in River Hills, Wisconsin, a northeast Milwaukee suburb.

The Milwaukee Brewers logo is beginning its sixth year of existence, following its selection from over 2,000 entries in a month-long contest that was open to the public, both amateur and professional, in October and November of '77. Tom Meindel, an Art History student at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, designed the logo and earned the $2,000 first prize. The logo combines the lower case letters "m" and "b", the club's initials, to form a baseball mitt.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

With Robin Yount earning the American League Most Valuable Player Award, and Pete Vuckovich earning the A.L. Cy Young Award in 1982, coupled with Rollie Fingers' sweep of the honors in 1981, it marked the first time an A.L. club won both awards in back-to-back seasons. The only other team to accomplish that was the National League Los Angeles Dodgers in 1962 & '63 when Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale and Maury Wills earned the honors.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Bob Betts is in his eighth season as the Milwaukee Brewers public address announcer. Bob is the Alumni Director at the Milwaukee School of Engineering. Frank Charles is starting his 11th season as the Brewers organist. During the winter, Frank is the organist for the Milwaukee Bucks. Handling the media hospitality are Ed Wellskopf, a veteran since the Braves era, and his son, Marty. Both are on hand at every home game serving the media in the press and service rooms.

1981
AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs NEW YORK

For the first time in major league history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half, confronted MILWAUKEE, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post season action while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs CALIFORNIA

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a presidence in LCS play. The Brewers overcame a 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

1982
WORLD SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs ST. LOUIS

It was tabbed the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER, now in his fourth year as the Brewers number one announcer and his 12th season broadcasting Brewer baseball, has recently released his book: Catcher in the Wry. A former catcher with the Braves, Cardinals and Phillies, Ueck spent six seasons in the majors and was a member of the 1964 St. Louis World Championship team. Uecker has gained national recognition for his work on ABC "Monday Night Baseball," the "Superstars" and as a guest on NBC's "Tonight Show."

DWAYNE MOSLEY is in his second season as the number two announcer and his third year on the Brewer broadcasting team. Formerly a local Sports Director, Mosley handled play-by-play for the University of South Dakota (basketball and football) and the Wausau Mets of the Class A Midwest League.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only two Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game, with Mike Hegan doing it back in 1976 and Charlie Moore accomplishing the feat in 1980. Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at bats including a walk, scoring twice and driving in six runs. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game, with three runs scored and three RBI, adding two stolen bases, capping his best single game performance in his career.
